The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Manuscript Division
Public Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Division des manuscrits
Archives publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ON my arrival from England in this Colony, in 1833, to receive a Grant of Land for Military Services, I was sent by His Excellency Sir John Colborne down to Seymour for Location. On my arriving there, and finding the Lots then advertised for sale, all occupied, I visited them, and stated, that if any Squatter would come forward to Purchase, I would not Bid against him—nor did I do so.

On my return to Toronto, another Auction was ordered, and I had to Travel to the Trent a second time. I visited the Lots squatted on, and told the wife of Philip Loucks, on 25, 4th Con. to inform her husband to attend the sale at Colborne, and if he felt disposed to purchase, I would not bid against him.

Loucks did attend, but did not bid, or make himself known to me until the sale was over, and the land on which he was a squatter sold to me, then did he exercise a little of his usual trickery in order to intimidate me from settling in the Township.

Finding other purchasers disposed to pay squatters for any clearance or improvements made, I could not hesitate to accede to the same arrangement, and did in presence of Major Campbell and several others, state to Loucks, that until my return from Europe, (having to bring out my Family,) he might remain on the land, as also reap the crop then growing, and that on my return, he to select a respectable settler, that I would name another, (if necessary,) they to appoint a third, and whatever sum those gentlemen stated I ought in justice to pay him, I would.

At this period Loucks was most anxious to take any sum I would give him, which I objected to, stating that many circumstances might occur that would prevent my returning; for instance, I might be lost, which I narrowly escaped; that he would then have my money and still remain a squatter.

Finding me not just the Goose to be caught by a States Fox, he appeared quite satisfied to touch the sovereigns on my return, and I was ready to give them, but on my arrival in Seymour, I found Philip had kicked my offer overboard, and intended to kick myself out of the Township if I did not just pay him what sum he pleased to ask; no less than seventy-five pounds would he accept for improvements not worth twenty, using all the frothy gasconade of a Squatting Lawyer, and commenced cutting, carrying off, and selling the most valuable of the Timber.

I cautioned him not to drive me to extreme measures, that every pound he caused me to expend in removing him, would be one out of his pocket; his subsequent impertinent language, and determined opposition to every fair and handsome offer made him, is so well known in the Township, that a repetition of it is unnecessary.

After putting me to Thirty-four pounds actual expense, and about 500 miles travelling, he now with Crocodile tears in his eyes, states that he is sorry for his improper conduct, as will appear by his submission, which submission ought to be a warning to others that Yankee Law will not pass Current at AMHERST as also a hint to the Natives, that We OLD COUNTRY FOLK are not to be considered FOREIGNERS in Canada: what we can, and what we will do when we meet with a renegade.

JAMES MASON.

To be Published.

COLBORNE, 17th April, 1835.

I take this public manner of expressing my grateful thanks to Mr. Mason, for the lenity he has shewn towards me, when in the cells, at Amherst Prison, for penalties which I incurred for lumbering on his Lands in Seymour, as also my evading by a false return, paying the District Land Tax, and lastly my highly improper conduct in not surrendering to him the possession of his Property, after the fair and handsome offers he made to me for what I considered my improvements. I now sincerely regret my not having accepted same, and return him thanks for permitting me to dispose of the timber I cut and removed, now lying on Squire's Creek.

PHILIP LOUCKS.
